

Sixth Annual Community Advisory Committee Art Competition

Contest Categories

The Community Advisory Committee Art contest is open to students ages three to twenty-two. Teachers/instructors of students in special education Pre-K through Post Secondary are encouraged to organize entries by their students.

Art Competition Rules for Submission:

- All artwork must be original artwork that will represent the Community Advisory Committee (CAC). The CAC is a group of parents and teachers who form a committee to advise on special education in the best interests of the child. We are parents who care about having good schools and making sure all children have the best opportunities possible.
- Artwork should communicate: "In the Quiet of the Night."
- Artwork may not exceed 24" x 24."
- All artwork should have a fully completed entry form taped to the back. The form requires student's name, grade, school, contact phone number, and signed parental permission to enter the art show. Also required is a brief description (80 words or fewer) of what the artwork communicates about "In the Quiet of the Night." (Entry form available at <http://www.nscselpa.org/cac/cac.htm>)
- We would like pictures of children creating their individual art pieces. Permission slips must be included with photograph submission.
- Descriptions should be neatly printed or typed and include the title of the art piece.
- Only one piece of artwork may be submitted per student.
- Submission deadline is November 30th, 2011.

Drop off art at COE (County Office of Education) Special Education Department.

Art Exhibition Reception and Awards

Art work will be on display for the whole month of February at the COE Building and families and community members are invited to view and vote on their favorites. One student's art work will be selected in this way to win an award as "the People's choice." A panel of judges will select the grand prize winner whose art work will be used in a poster to represent the CAC. This poster will be hung in school offices in Santa Cruz County.

All artists and their families and friends, educators, and community members are invited to a reception at the COE in Santa Cruz, on February 22nd from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. to view the art, enjoy music and refreshments and honor the winners.

Sponsored by The County Office of Education, North Santa Cruz County SELPA, and the CAC.
