The Art and Science of Collaboration in Special Education

*Special Educators frequently collaborate with other professionals to provide services that ensure students with special needs achieve their full potential. When educators collaborate effectively, they learn from each other, build on each other's strengths and share techniques that reflect a broad range of experiences and educational backgrounds. # Registration Guidelines for 2009/2010

In order to streamline the process and provide a better workshop for everyone your SELPA has asked that the following guidelines be observed.

Please (for each workshop):

- √ Each district must submit one registration for your district with all attendees listed. If additional attendees are later added please use another registration form with new attendees only.
- √ Include a copy of your PO, OR check OR you may include the budget code for transfer, with each registration. The registration will be returned if one of these approved methods of payment does not accompany it. If new attendees are added please submit payment method at this time.
- √ Honor the posted deadline. It is typically a few days more than two weeks to allow your SELPA time to process requests and order catering (when appropriate), as well as to honor our agreement with the Diagnostic Center.
- √ An administrator (or designee) must sign off on the registration.
- √ The SELPA is not responsible for subs.
- √ Teachers should contact their district representative (not the SELPA) if they need to cancel –
  - Your district will be charged for the event if the cancellation is less than two weeks out.
- √ Keep a copy of your submitted registration for your records.
